Letters to the Future

Worksheet

Remember, you have one small and important part of this to do.
- Elizabeth Sawin

Imagine you are 30 years in the future.
Good news: we have successfully implemented climate solutions!

Write a letter to a young person (perhaps your child, grandchild, or another loved one) about how we got here, how we overcame the challenges, and how it feels to have lived through such a significant transition.